STRONG START THE KEY TO SUCCESS: HARNWELL

Perth Glory will travel to Victoria to take on Melbourne Victory in the 2011/12 Westfield W-League season opener at The Veneto Club on Saturday afternoon and Glory coach Jamie Harnwell says he has the squad to do the business.

In another key announcement, Under 15's Girls NTC coach Jessine Bonzas has been named as the Perth Glory's assistant coach.

New signings to the Perth Glory squad will be a familiar face in inaugural player Danielle Calautti, as well as her Beckenham Angels teammate and recently crowned Goalkeeper of the Year from the Women's Premier League, Kristy Teschinsky.

"It has been a long process getting the players together and ready for the first game of the season but they are all excited that the first one is upon us," said Harnwell.

"With it being such a short season it is imperative that we get off to a good start against Melbourne.

"They will be a tough test, but I am confident we have assembled a squad that will do Perth Glory proud."

It will also be the first time that vice-captain Ella Mastrantonio has come up against the Victory since leaving the team to join Perth again this season.

Kickoff is at 2pm Perth time tomorrow afternoon.
